

January 16, 2013 Skype between Gail and her men with Zack Knight harassing Gail, when Zack was the Antichrist:

Gail: Jesus has given me new powers. I am now able to beat up Zack Knight brain to brain, using lightning bolts and my fists and arms like a man.

Actually, I believe that since I've abandoned my KJV only position, I have become strong in the Lord and that's why Zack has not successfully seduced me after he tricked me into signing a contract in November 2012 that said I wanted him to make brain to brain loving with him, by embedding this into the signature line in very, very small print, which I never knew about until two days ago.

In fact, two nights ago, Zack kept sticking his fingers up my vagina brain to brain, and I hit him with my fist brain to brain over and over. I told Jesus I was furious at him. I think Jesus cut his fingers off.

But I fought it and did not give in and kept hitting him with my fist brain to brain and told Jesus to beat him up. He kept kissing me on the mouth, too, and I punched him in the face with my fist brain to brain like a man. I really don't think he aroused me. I was too angry to be aroused. I beat him up.

Then Jesus finished the job.

Oooo. He's hissed at me as Satan.

Oh, my God, Jesus flinging him all over. He was really getting beat up!

I could hear him screaming for mercy.

He kept trying to come back at me, so Jesus slung him all over the place.

Then Jesus appeared to standing guard. He kept blocking Zack/Satan from reaching me. He acted like a blockade.

I could hear the hissing, but Jesus blocked him from "touching" me brain to brain. Oh, that Satan is stubborn.

Satan paced and hissed and Jesus blocked him from reaching me.

Brain to brain, he looked like a big red lizard, with a flicking tongue and he was hissing

When I started punching Zack with my fist, he turned into Satan, and then Jesus got involved, and shot lightning bolts at Zack.

Some sort of stalemate. Jesus still stood guard and Satan just sat, waiting for an opportunity. Probably waiting for Jesus to leave. Jesus wouldn't leave until Satan left.

I said, "Thanks, Jesus." And then he shot a lightning bolt at Satan.

I think Satan really hates that video I just made about Zack Knight, because in it I addressed the topic of the Antichrist too much.

Jesus sat down and drank coffee, and Satan sat down. A stalemate

Jesus sipped some coffee, shooting lightning bolts at Satan and then sipped more coffee. Satan screamed in agony, but wouldn't leave.

That Satan then talked to me, faking as Jesus. I told him to shut up.

I said, "Jesus, will never talk to me brain to brain." I really think the stalemate will last a while. I must have made Satan very angry with that video where I exposed Zack as the Antichrist, and that's why I don't want him.

Jesus just gave Satan one big shove and I think he headed for the bottomless pit. Not sure.

Wherever Satan was, he still tried to talk to me, but his voice sounded muffled. Jesus must have interfered.

I heard what sounded like a guy trying to talk when he's gagged.

I heard utterings, but they made no sense.

Oh, dear. Zack Knight must have gotten his fingers back. He stuck one up my vagina.

I just hit Zack with my fist. And Jesus zapped him with lightning bolts. It appears now that Satan was gone, Zack returned.

Actually, I think Zack was just Satan in another form.

Every time he kissed me or used his finger on my vagina, I hit him with my fist brain to brain. I aimed right for his face. Brain to brain I seemed to have muscles like a man. I could even fling Zack across the room.

Wow, I just shot some lightning bolts at Zack. I aimed the last one at his penis. He screamed in agony. It looks like Jesus enhanced my powers brain to brain.

I'm hitting him with a blitzkrieg of lightning bolts. He screamed, "You bitch!"

I'm hitting him with lightning bolts like a machine gun, some went right to his penis.

He's slunk away from me. I think I actually got him scared.

All curled up in the fetal position, he crouched in pain, held his penis. So much pain, he could barely move. I told him to quit lying about me to the public and to leave me alone..

Zack shook his head in amazement at my new powers.

I told Terrance on Skype: I want you to beam Zack aboard Church of Gail, so I know my brain to brain is accurate.

We got two pictures of his penis, then he teleported away. I saw the photos, but wouldn't show a penis online. His penis was red, inflamed and about half of it, his skin was black scorched. They tried to take body pictures, but he escaped before they could.

Terrance and Brent BOTH SAW THE BURNED PENIS

IT SMELLED AWFUL

Like overdone ham.

Even after all this damage I did to him, because he raped me brain to brain, using his finger in my vagina--Zack still tried to rape me.

Oh, my god, The UFOs, Zack Knight and Satan all showed up to fight Jesus. I helped Jesus, I shot lightning bolts at some UFOs and they exploded.

I just knocked out about a dozen UFOs. UFOs exploded everywhere. UFOs went to Church of Gail to harass my men. Jesus was kind of like the GA1L android, he may be small, but these UFOs met their match.

Jesus said Zack actually enjoyed burning in hell. I could see this trait in him, because I hit him with lightning bolts and he laughed sometimes.

Gail to Brent: Is it true that UFOs have been attacking Church of Gail, as a result of my fight with Zack, Satan and the UFOs? Jesus has been helping, too.

Oh yes. We don't know exactly why they're doing this either.

They're trying to usurp Jesus, that's why. Because we're on Jesus' side, against them.

Zack told people on CNN I only protest to make it appear I don't like it. He's full of crap. And that I secretly like getting sexual moves from him. No, I don't. He makes me angry at his audacity. Who does he think he is? He is such a proud man. Just like the Bible describes the Antichrist. I am really developing a dislike for this guy.

It appears that Zack is to me what Loree was to Brent. I understand how Brent felt that the many believed he actually wanted Loree McBride. I just couldn't understand how people could be so stupid to think I ever desired Zack Knight as himself. He could only get me when I thought he was Jesus.

Brent Spiner: Yes! It's just like what I went through with Loree. The only way I could "want" her was when I thought she was you. Not only did the whole world think I wanted her, they thought I slept with her, married her, and even willingly had a child with her. It was so awful.

Gail: Hopefully it won't get that bad with Zack Knight for me. At least, I have lightning bolts. I believe he's trying to seduce me to get "evidence" on me, just like Loree got "evidence" on you. I am fighting him tooth and nail.

Zack began using our penis photos of him to brain to brain rape me, trying to turn me on. Apparently, these photos give him power. I deleted them. I shot more bolts at him. Jesus returned, helping me.

Brent Spiner: I'm sure, in his own way, Zack Knight selfishly believes he's worthy to bed such a powerful and brilliant woman, and wants what he thinks he deserves. It's a big ego boost for him to have the world think you want him.

Gail: I think the reason the UFOs are attacking you is because you support me and Jesus. They see all of us as a threat to their goal of usurping Jesus as ruler of the Universe.

Brent: They will never win against God. Yes. I fought so hard for those nude photos of you from Encyclopedia Dramatica on the Internet to come down. The problem was, investigators couldn't confirm or deny who stole the photos to begin with.

Gail: I thought we determined that Zack Knight stole them and then the GA1L android got them and gave them to King James Only people, who posted them online.

Brent: Yes, but they kept blurring the evidence in court to make it look like there was no proof, and they argued that you must have willingly given nudes to Zack Knight.

Gail: That's a bunch of crap. I would never give Zack Knight any nudes. That proud, vulgar man. He thinks he's entitled to me, just like demon possessed Loree McBride thought she was entitled to you, raping you, and then creating a whole online presence to promote her lie that you ever really wanted her as herself

I started discussing some of my health issues with Brent. He got real quiet..

SILENCE FOR A LONG TIME.

Gail: Brent, you falling asleep on me? This isn't like you.

Brent: Yeah, I'm having a hard time staying awake.

Gail: How much sleep you got last night?

Brent: I was up all night.

Gail: Up all night, trying to get that nude of me down. Perhaps, Jesus wants it to stay up to remind the world that those King James only people are truly evil, cause they posted it. Go to sleep, my dear. I say that Jesus' spirit to spirit loving is better than sex. I don't think they can relate to this.

Jesus every now and then caresses me with His spirit. It's truly awesome. Sometimes, it's Zack Knight. But I usually can tell when it's Zack Knight, trying to impersonate Jesus' spirit, because Zack's spirit is not wonderful, deep feeling, masculine, heroic and awesome like Jesus. Zack has a more shallow spirit.

Terrance tells me that Jesus looks like the portraits some artists have drawn of Him from the Shroud of Turin, but without the broken nose. His face is very practical looking and his body still has the scars on his wrists, hands, feet and side. Jesus is personable and expressive with us.

I had brain to brain loving with Brent last night, but Zack kept trying to butt in, I shot lightning bolts at him while I made love to Brent. Zack was distracting my time with Brent. I am learning to really dislike this Zack Knight. Like the Bible states about the Antichrist—he's a proud man.

I think I understand a little better about Brent has felt, dealing with Loree McBride. But Brent didn't have lightning bolts. He told me, if only I had lightning bolts to deal with Loree!
